The Quest

The President's Podium

Members,

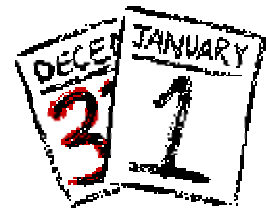

I would like to thank the 2006 Collinsville Chamber of Commerce officers and members for another great year in Collinsville. A special "thank you" to Mr. Steve Howe, our 2006 President, for all of his hard work, dedication and leadership this past year. We live in a community that has recently gone through some positive changes and, with your help, we can continue to sprint in the right direction. The keynote speakers at the December meeting were Collinsville City Manager Pam Polk and Mayor Stan Sallee. Those in attendance viewed a terrific power point presentation highlighting the recent progress in the Collinsville area. We are the fastest growing community, percentage wise, in Tulsa County. Our school Average Daily Membership is skyrocketing past state projections. The community has passed the last three bond issues by an amazing average of 89%. Our future growth will demand the expansion of classrooms at all campuses. The City of Collinsville will soon be asking for (and needing) all of our support in our city bond election. We have a great community with outstanding leaders whose vision and goal is to continue to make Collinsville a progressive community on the rise. Let's all get involved and help make 2007 a great year for Collinsville.

Sincerely,

Terry Due
2007 Chamber President
