The Quest

The President's Podium

Members,

The weather has taken its toll on the City of Collinsville for the past two months. We are hoping for a milder March so we can stay on track with our meetings and events without delays. Herman Luetze and Bloodine Bobb-Semple from the Affirmative Defense Response Team in Tulsa were the keynote speakers at the February 1st General Meeting. They are Certified Identity Theft Risk Specialists and spoke to the Chamber members about the new legislation changes and how they affect businesses in relation to identity theft. Their presentation was very informative and the members responded with a number of great questions.

Special guests in attendance included Erin Conrad from Congressman John Sullivan's office and Paul Patterson from Tulsa County Assessor Ken Yazel's office.

Our General meeting attendance has been great, and we look forward to seeing all of you at the next meeting on March 1st.

Sincerely,
 Terry Due
 2007 Chamber President
